Fumes blamed for sickness

Fumes from Altona Petrochemical Co. Ltd. were blamed for widespread sickness at Altona High School last Thursday.

After a teacher had vomited, 14 staff had reported ill and many students had complained of headaches and sore eyes, the principal, Mr. George Shee, ordered that all students be sent home — 20 minutes early.

As a strong north wind swept acrid fumes from the company's plant across the school, Mr. Shee issued an ultimatum to Altona Council's health inspector, Mr. John Mellors: Stop the pollution within half an hour or the school will close.

Fifty minutes later the fumes were still causing distress.

Mr. Shee ordered the school's 720 students to be sent home at 2.50 p.m.

It was the second time in a year that the school had been closed because of air pollution.

Mr. Shee threatened to close the school again if the fumes were still in the air on Friday.

But the air was clear and the school functioned normally.

Teachers said the north wind, was blowing the fumes from the Altona Petrochemical Co. plant into the school most of the day.

Fourteen teachers and two typists filed sickness reports.

They listed symptoms ranging from nausea and a burning sensation in the nose and throat to headache, dizziness, constriction in respiration, smarting eyes, sinus pains, watering eyes and blocked nose.

Mrs. Eileen Walder, 28, of Hammond Street, Altona, had a headache and vomiting attack while taking a form 3 English class. She has suffered recurring sinus and allergy complaints since moving into the district four years ago.

She said: "It was just overpowering when I walked into the room."

"I began to feel my voice tightening, my eyes watering. Then I beat a rather hasty retreat from the class."

"My eldest daughter, Kim, 6, came home from the primary

Students leaving Altona High School early last Friday afternoon, after the school was closed because of polluted air.

school, which is not very far away, also complaining of a headache."

Mr. Carey Harris, maths co-ordinator of Delmont Avenue is treasurer of the Altona Pollution Abatement Association.

Mr. Harris said he believed the chemical involved in the incident was Butadiene, because the smell was the same as had been described as coming from this product during a recent tour of the plant.

Third form maths teacher, Mr. Allen Parkin, of Millers Road, said: "I think it's time the onus was put on the refinery people to prove it isn't a hazard to health."

NEW STORE 'A TRAFFIC HAZARD'

A Blyth Street resident has written to Altona Council complaining that the supermarket which is being built at the corner of Pier and Queen Streets will cause a blatant traffic hazard.

In his letter to council, Mr. C. R. Bartlett said that by allowing a building to be erected to the full extremities of the building line at the corner, Altona Council had caused grave concern to ratepayers.

"I am amazed that with the road accident problem as it confronts us today and everyday, that Altona Council could allow this sort of problem to occur," Mr. Bartlett said.

"What will be the remedy to cure the trouble — traffic lights? I think not, particularly if they are the type installed at Pier and Blyth streets intersection."

"What can one think when home builders must build well back and are requested to cut view, obstructing hedges at street intersections to allow a clear view of traffic but that there is a different set of rules when commerce is involved?"

Mr. Bartlett continued his letter: "There may be a quite logical answer to the question. However, if so, I would be interested to have council's opinions on the subject."

Asked for his comments on Mr. Bartlett's letter, Altona's building surveyor, Mr. Arthur Beech said:

"The building at the north-west corner of Pier and Queen streets is on land zoned as 'local business', and consisted of three allotments which could have been used for the erection of individual shops."

"It can be assumed that if this type of individually constructed building development had occurred, the large amount of off-street car parking could not have been provided by individual developers."

Mr. Beech said: "When areas of land are available in business zones for development, it is only possible to require set-backs from the front or rear of the site for off-street car parking purposes under the provisions of the Metropolitan Planning Scheme Ordinance."

travelling in an easterly direction along Queen Street can quite clearly observe traffic on the right travelling northwards in Pier Street, and drivers of vehicles proceeding in a southerly direction in Pier Street, which is 66 feet wide at this intersection should have no difficulty in giving way to vehicles travelling easterly along Queen Street," he said.

"In my opinion providing drivers observe the law, the intersection (which is far more open than many hundreds of other intersections in the metropolitan area) should not be considered to be hazardous."

"If problems do occur I feel that the provision of a stop or give way sign positioned in Queen Street, adjacent to the corner of the supermarket, could effectively control traffic at this corner," said Mr. Beech.

The supermarket in Pier Street is being built by G. J. Coles and Coy. Pty. Ltd.

At the time of going to press the Star was not able to ascertain what action Altona Council would take on Mr. Bartlett's complaint.

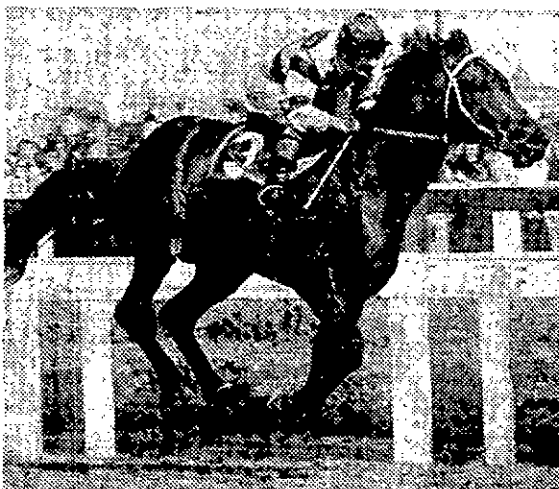

GIVE WAY

"However, this procedure has not been adopted in the 'local business zone' in Pier Street in an effort to create a continuous shopping frontage on both sides of the street, and to provide off-street parking on other sites in close proximity to the shopping centre."

"According to present road law, drivers of vehicles are required to give way to traffic on the right at all intersections."

"Drivers of vehicles

Now what?

Sobar — Winner of Saturday's Caulfield Cup — is not a definite starter in the Melbourne Cup.

Keith Southwick, a part-owner of Sobar, told the Star yesterday the Victoria Derby is the next target. Keith, with his brother, operate Cedel Products. Cedel has a factory at Laverton North.

"We try to run about once a fortnight, but any decision regarding the Melbourne Cup will depend on how easily Sobar wins the Derby," Keith said.

Keith races in partnership with his mother and brother. Other horses he holds high hopes for are Liquido and Jerkin. Jerkin has been a consistent winner at Werribee. He is also a patron of Werribee and Laverton Horse Club.

New talks on the west's future

A key development seminar next Sunday would provide an opportunity for the people of Altona to get help to overcome many of their community problems, Cr. Bryan Bailey said yesterday.

Cr. Bailey is Mayor of the City of Keilor which is sponsoring the important seminar on Industry, Employment and Transport in the Western Suburbs.

This seminar is a follow-on from the recent successful seminar, The Deprived West. Among the key speakers at Sunday's seminar will be Mr. Bob Hawke, president of the Australian Council of Trade Unions.

Cr. Bailey said: "We especially welcome the people of Altona to attend the seminar on Sunday, October 29, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m."

"It will be held at the deluxe Hotel International, Harper Street, Airport West."

Speakers and their subjects will be:

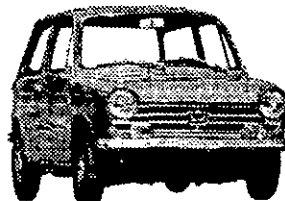

Industry and Employment in the West: The Real Issues? — Mr. Bob Hawke, President of the ACTU.

What the West Gate Bridge will mean to the People, Trade, and Commerce of the West? — Mr. Oscar G. Meyer, O.B.E., Chairman Lower Yarra Crossing Authority. The Western Suburbs: A Victim of Planning Discrimination? — Dr. John Paterson, B. Comm. (Melb.), (ANU). Hon. Fellow and Lecturer, Department of Civil Engineering and Town and Regional Planning, Melbourne University; Principal, John Paterson Urban Systems, Pty. Ltd.

CREDIT UNION FOR ALTONA

A new branch of the Laverton Credit Union has been established at Altona.

This follows consistent demand for credit facilities from Altona residents over the past six months. Of the union's overall membership of 825, about 150 are Altona residents.

The new office is above real estate agents Farnbach and Burnham, at 52 Pier Street. It is under the development manager, Mr. Norm Brindle.

The secretary-manager of the union, Mr. Brad Muller said: "We are becoming increasingly popular in the Altona area because we are able to make credit available at a reasonable rate of interest to the average working man."

"We can bring down the interest rate for the person who hasn't got a large amount of money."

"We provide bank rates to people who are unable to obtain a bank loan."

"Under our budget plan, we handle all the banking and borrowing of the family man at a very small cost," Mr. Muller said.

"We encourage thrift and set people in the saving pattern when they haven't been able to save before."

The union's trading hours are: Monday to Thursday, 10 a.m. to 5.30 p.m.; Friday, 10 a.m.-8 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m.-11.30 a.m.

The union is owned and operated by its members.

'TEACH CHILDREN HOW TO SPEND'

A course in consumer spending should be compulsory in Victorian schools, the secretary-manager of the Laverton Credit Union, Mr. Brad Muller, said this week.

The union recently opened a branch in Altona.

Mr. Muller said: "We're all taught how to earn money, but few are taught how to spend it."

"It worries me that the Victorian education curriculum does not devote enough time to teaching the rudiments of finance."

"I believe a course in consumer spending should be provided at all schools."

"In New South Wales, fourth and fifth formers are taught how to spend their money wisely."

"The credit unions, in co-operation with the NSW Teaching Resources Centre, have developed a full educational kit, including teaching aids, books and films."

"The kit is made available to all schools."

"The Victorian Credit Co-operative Association has attempted to introduce a similar scheme in Victoria, but it is rated on the curriculum as a very low priority subject."

"I would like to see it made a compulsory subject."

FREE LIFE INSURANCE

All members of the Laverton Credit Union receive free life insurance.

This is particularly beneficial to people aged between 15 and 29, who receive life insurance cover equal to four times their savings (their savings plus 300 per cent.).

The union recently opened a new branch at Altona.

The secretary-manager, Mr. Brad Muller, said: "this is not intended to replace normal life insurance, but as an additional coverage."

"When a person is young, his commitments are highest — but the average young person doesn't have enough coverage."

"Our coverage fills this gap, while also giving an extra incentive to save."

There is no medical checkup required to qualify for the union's free coverage.

SAVINGS EARN FIVE PER CENT

All savings deposited in the Laverton Credit Union, which recently opened a new branch in Altona, earn 5 per cent. interest per annum.

The maximum loan available is $2000.

This can be granted after a person has bought only five $2 shares.

The interest rate on loans is about 6½ per cent. flat.

There are no hidden charges.

Loans are insured free of charge against death.

CELEBRATIONS TURNED TO LAMENTATIONS

A 20-year-old Altona High School matriculation student told Williamstown Court last week he had been celebrating the end of his October tests before his car was involved in an accident on Friday, October 13.

Henry George Joseph Zappart, of Altona, pleaded guilty to charges of having driven with a blood alcohol level greater than .05 per cent, having driven while under the influence of alcohol to the extent of being incapable of control of the vehicle, having failed to report an accident and property damage and having failed to stop after an accident.

The .05 charge was later withdrawn by the police prosecutor.

Peter John Rosenbloom, a student at Altona High School, told the court he accompanied Zappart to the Tarmac Hotel at 7 p.m. on October 13.

They left the hotel at 10.05 p.m. and drove towards Altona and in to Webb Street.

He said when the accident happened he was sitting in the front passenger seat.

Zappart kept on going and drove along the Esplanade.

Questioned by Zappart, Rosenbloom said they had been playing billiards in the hotel, not just drinking beer for three hours.

Rosenbloom told the court there was no one at the scene of the accident but when they drove back again, there were about a dozen people there, so Zappart drove on again.

In reply to a question from Mr. H. Boarder SM, Rosenbloom said the accident happened when Zappart swerved to the right of Webb Street, a narrow street, to miss a car parked on the left.

He hit another car parked about 20 or 30 ft. further up the street on the right hand side.

Constable Peter Lesley McKay of Werribee police, told the court he was called to the scene of an accident outside 20 Webb Street at 10.55 on October 13.

A parked station wagon had been damaged on the front off-side and a light-colored mud-guard was lying on the nature strip.

He said he later saw a light-colored Holden with a mudguard missing driving along the Esplanade.

He followed it along the Esplanade and at Millers Road it swung right across over the middle of the road to make a left hand turn.

Const. McKay said he intercepted the car, which was driven by Zappart, and asked him what had happened to the mud-guard on his car.

Zappart replied that he supposed it had just fallen off.

He said Zappart's breath smelt of liquor and his speech was slurred, but he said he'd only had about five pots of beer.

He said Zappart told him he had not been involved in an accident, though he had narrowly missed one, swerving to miss a car.

He took Zappart to Altona police station and gave him a series of sobriety tests, which he did not perform well.

Const. McKay said Zap-part's breathalyser test showed a reading of .180 per cent.

Zappart told the court he had just finished his October exams at school and was celebrating with a group of students.

He said he had references from teachers at school to present to the court, but Mr. Boarder said there was no need for them, as Zappart's character was not in doubt.

He said he would take into account the fact that Zappart had been celebrating, but at 20, he should have known better than to drive in that state.

He fined Zappart $50 for having driven under the influence of alcohol, cancelled his licence and disqualified him from obtaining another for 12 months.

He also fined him $20 on each of the other two charges.

CHESS ON THE MOVE

A second chess club is being formed in Altona.

Behind the move to form a new club is Mr. George Said, of 47 Linnet Street.

Mr. Said said: "The other chess club meets at the Altona North Public Library, which is a bit far for people from South Altona to travel."

A preliminary meeting recently was convened by Mr. Said and about 12 people turned up.

Another meeting will be held tonight (Wednesday) at 7.30 at "The Homestead", opposite the main library in Queen Street.

Mr. Said said: "I was quite pleased with the response at the first meeting and I expect a few more to attend the next one."

"I hope to form a club and elect office-bearers at this meeting."

Mr. Said has been playing chess since he was a child.

He is a member of the chess club at L M Ericsson Pty. Ltd., Broadmeadows, where he is employed.

Ironically, the Ericsson team defeated the original Altona Chess Club for this year's Victorian Chess Association C grade championship.

Mr. Said was a member of the team, so some keen rivalry between the two local clubs can be expected in the future.

Mr. Said is a member of the Altona High School Advisory Council and he hopes that a number of students from the school will join the new club.

He has been assisted in his project by Cr. Pat Burns, who has the portfolio for cultural activities.

CAIRNS TALKS

Shortcomings in the western suburbs revealed at the "Deprived West" seminar included the highest number of unsewered homes and unmade streets and the lowest proportion of children who manage to go through to tertiary education.

Dr. J. P. Cairns, Federal member for Lalor said this. Speaking at Laverton recently he said, that about 3.3 per cent. of western suburbs' children go through to tertiary education compared to 33 per cent. in the east.

"It is not a reflection on ability" said Dr. Cairns. "It is a reflection on opportunity — the pressures on children in a family where the income is not high, larger classes in relation to teachers, fewer teachers, etc."

Under a newly adopted plan of the Labor Party, more finance would be made available to western suburbs' municipalities.

Dr. Cairns said councils

found that their income in rates was insufficient to meet all services required of them.

Under the plan, local government all over Australia would be authorised by the Federal Government to apply to the Commonwealth Grants Commission.

Until now, only the State Government had been able to do this.

"We will meet these applications and eventually the money will come through to western suburbs' municipalities" Dr. Cairns said.

The Labor Party also planned to do the same thing for the Board of Works, said Dr. Cairns. It would be granted, without application, $25 million in the first year which will allow it to complete its backlog of sewerage and water supply within 12 months.

TPI SOCIAL NOTES

An enjoyable afternoon was had by all when 65 members of the Footscray, Williamstown and Western Suburbs TPI Social Club visited Geelong.

They were entertained by the Geelong Choir and a bracket of numbers by a TPI member on the violin and his wife who played the piano.

Winners of a recent card afternoon were Mrs. J. Brown and Mr. G. Rossiter.

The next card afternoon will be on November 2 in the Manchester Unity Hall, Footscray, at 1.30 p.m.

The club extends its deepest sympathy to the family of a member who died last week — Mr. A. Brander.

Hello Girls,

Lovely gift boxes arriving daily now, girls. Bromley — in their new square bottles — in economical packs with every conceivable combination. You can choose from Lemon, Sandalwood, English Fern, Lavender, Eau-de-cologne and English Rose (formerly known as Rose Geranium). Then this year they have introduced one attractive pack with Hibiscus fragrance. Two packs in a sensible price range are Country Herb bath foam and a soap. The herbs are Rosemary, Camomile and Melissa. The other new one is a small jar of Pot Pourre and a soap. It would be sensible to call and even lay-by now while the range is full.

Coty as usual have a dainty arrangement with their goods. From little monkey pod dishes holding soap and bath cube of either imprevue or Masumi or big wooden dishes with an exotic range of Emerald or L'Aimont. Imprevue all gathered together in a flower basket or a cane hang greenery basket. Quite original I think!

Very popular — yes — Tweed in a large assortment of gift boxes. You just cannot go wrong with Tweed. For any of the younger members of the family or friends, just starting out with perfumes, Tweed has a younger idea — Miss Lenthic. Miss Lenthic has a young-mod perfume, bright and gay for these warmer months — and prettily packed too. While talking perfume — two new spray Eau-de-toilette just arrived. Beautifully French — Cabochard, delightfully fragrant. Light and toward floral, delicate for summer evenings. Another French Parfum-de-toilette Afris — a modern blend and a sensible price. Elegantly boxed for you — or a friend.

Notice your nails growing quicker now. Funny how this happens in the warmer weather. You can keep them in good shape with cuticle scissors, straight or curved. File down to perfection with diamond-sapphire emery files, then talking of diamonds — keep your nails diamond hard with the help of Mavala nail hardener. No, not as dear as you think! Firstly try the trial size (two months supply) and find for yourself the value of the best nail care products. Mavala.

DRIVER GETS MORE GAOL

Fourth time on same count

A man who had served three gaol sentences since 1957 for unlicensed driving was sentenced to a further two months on the same charge in Williamstown Court last Thursday.

Frederick Durdin, of Altona, did not appear in court to answer charges of having failed to give way to the right, having approached an intersection at a dangerous speed and unlicensed driving.

Part-time taxi driver Gerard West, of Altona, told the court that he was driving along May Street, Altona, on December 5, last year.

He reduced speed at the Third Avenue intersection, looked both ways, and saw headlights approaching on his left.

He started across the intersection, but the other car failed to stop, struck his car, and pushed it across the road and through a brick fence.

He added that both cars were "write-offs".

In reply to a question from Mr. H. Boarder SM, West said he was about three-quarters of the way across the intersection, doing about 20 mph when struck by Durdin's car.

Constable Glen Ellis of Williamstown police said he arrived at the accident scene at 3.30 a.m. the same night.

A taxi was in the front garden of the houses on the corner and another car was parked a little way along Third Avenue. Both cars were extensively damaged.

He said there were skid marks along Third Avenue for 30 ft. and 5 ft. in to the intersection.

Const. Ellis added that he interviewed both Durdin and West in Footscray Hospital.

Durdin had told him he was travelling along Third Avenue at 40 mph.

He did not see West's car until he was almost at the intersection and then only just its lights.

Const. Ellis said Durdin told him he hit the brakes but it was too late. After that, he remembered little about the accident.

Constable Ellis gave evidence of a long list of Durdin's prior convictions, including several licence disqualifications dating as far back as 1957.

He presented evidence to show Durdin had never held a driver's licence.

Mr. H. Boarder SM sentenced Durdin to two months' gaol, for having driven without a licence and disqualified him from obtaining a licence for five years.

He fined him $100 with $10 costs for having failed to give way to the right and $50 for having approached an intersection at a dangerous speed.

'Give Wiltona to Aborigines'

A reader of the Star has suggested converting the Wiltona Migrant Hostel into an Aboriginal settlement.

The suggestion comes from Mr. H. J. Robinson, of Bundury Street, Newport, who writes:

SIR, — With the projected closing of the Wiltona Migrant Hostel comes an opportunity for the governments concerned and the people to prove their claim to hold nothing against people of another color. In the country areas of Victoria many Aborigines live in poor circumstances because the breadwinner or winners are unable to find employment. This applies particularly this year, with drought conditions facing many parts of the State.

While employment is far from easy to find in the metropolitan area, people have a far better chance of finding a job than they would in the country.

Settling at the Wiltona Hostel would give many Aboriginal families a temporary home until they find permanent work and are in a position to live outside the hostel. This is the system under which the hostel operated for British migrants, with outstanding success.

The hostel would be ideal for Aborigines. Its close-living quarters would suit the community living type of life inherent in them from tribal ties.

And people who "like Aborigines as long as they don't live next door" would be satisfied also. The hostel is situated in the centre of open land, with no near neighbors and no likelihood of settlement for many years, if ever.

The occupants would have to be carefully screened — as are migrants before they enter Australia. This could no doubt be arranged with the assistance of the Aborigines' Advancement League or some similar organisation.

A final decision on who would be recommended for admission to the hostel could come from Pastor Sir Douglas Nicholls. No one, surely, would doubt a family recommended by him.

The hostel was considered suitable for British migrants, so there is no reason it would not be suitable for Aborigines.

If we are true to our claims we believe all men are created equal, we must find no objection to the suggestion.

"Teachers in Victoria might just as well wear ball and chains . . . there's too many 'little Gods' in office . . . the whole State of Victoria is too much responsibility for a bureaucratic body like the VEB . . ."

A critic of the Education Department? No, an exchange teacher and his first impressions of the teaching profession in Victoria.

Altona North High School is Mike Reynolds, 19th school this year. A British subject with Canadian citizenship, Mr. Reynolds began teaching at Altona North in August.

Altona North now has three exchange teachers — the other two are Joline Black, a music teacher, and maths teacher Gary Asp.

They believe, like many of their Australian counterparts, that if there was less bureaucracy in schools there would be more competition among teachers for positions.

New teachers have a say

Greater emphasis is placed on performance — such as concerts &c. with music students — in the United States than here.

Reputedly one of the largest high schools in Victoria, Altona North has a staff of over 50 teachers. But to bring the "technical" side of music to the same level in the United States, Miss Black believes another music teacher would have to be employed.

Victorian schools deal with mathematics at final year level advanced of their American counterparts, according to Mr. Asp.

He said a lot of mathematics taught here would not be attempted till first year university in the States.

Mr. Asp said he thought students were better staying in school an extra year or so than be faced with an employment problem through lack of jobs.

A 30,000-mile tread wear guarantee on a motor tyre is news enough, but a 40,000-guarantee is positively startling.

Yet that is what Bridgestone offer on this tyre in addition to the normal warranty with its RD-170V steel tyre covering workmanship and quality.

It all started with the Bridgestone has extended six-ply rating RD-12 which had the guarantee to 40,000 is used on panel vans and miles for the high speed wagons.

Overseas stars for the dulux

More international entries for the Dulux Rally have arrived. The most important is the Datsun 240Z for 1970 Ampol Rally winner Edgar Herrmann.

Herrmann came third in the Southern Cross Rally held recently driving a factory entered Datsun 180B SSS.

For the Dulux Rally he has the same Datsun 240Z Coupe that Finnish ace Rauno Aaltonen used to gain second place in the Southern Cross.

Herrmann's references are pretty exciting reading, with top successes in many of the world's greatest events.

Living in South Africa, the German driver has won the East African Safari twice, in 1970 and 1971, and was the first privateer to finish in the London-Sydney Marathon.

In racing he has a fifth outright in both the Spa Francorchamps 24-hour sedan race, and a fifth outright in the Marathon De La Route run over 84 hours round the infamous Nurburgring in Germany.

When not racing or rallying Herrmann runs a hotel and a travel agency. Co-driving will be Australian, Roger Bonhomme.

PIT - SPEED

● Pit stops can mean win or lose in the long races for the Manufacturers' Championship. Ford got a big lead over everyone else when it first used air jacks to cut seconds off standstill time at Bathurst in 1970. But the others caught up. In this picture of Peter Brock's winning Torana at Bathurst this year, the Holden Dealer crew topped up the petrol tank and changed four tyres in one minute 20 seconds. Try that on your local service station.

STRUCK CYCLIST —LOSES LICENCE

An Altona schoolboy told Williamstown Court last week a woman whose car knocked him off his bicycle would not have had time to stop after she caught sight of him.

Fifteen-year-old Peter Jones, said a car, driven by Mrs. Josephine Granger struck him as she was doing a right-hand turn from Millers Road in to Kororoit Creek Road.

Granger, of Seaholme, had taken up a position at the intersection to do a right-hand turn and waited for several vehicles to come through.

Jones, of Queen Street, Altona, told the court he was riding his bicycle through the Kororoit Creek Road intersection at 4.15 p.m. on May 25.

There was a truck on his right-hand side as he drove through the intersection.

He added that the truck speeded up and passed him and as it did, Mrs. Granger's car made a right-hand turn towards him and pushed him off his bicycle.

In a sworn statement, Granger told the court she had taken up a position at the intersection to do a right-hand turn and waited for several vehicles to come through.

She said her view of Jones was obscured.

She stopped immediately when she saw Jones in her way, but still struck him.

Mr. H. Boarder, SM said he would take in to account the fact that the truck obscured Granger's view of the boy, but it was every driver's absolute duty to give way to vehicles when making a turn.

He fined Granger $30 and cancelled her probationary driver's licence for the statutory period of three months.

'Let prams on buses'

Mothers with young children in prams were prevented from travelling to Melbourne by tramways bus, the Member for Melbourne West, Mr. A. W. Knight, said in the Legislative Council recently.

Mr. Knight said: "At present, these mothers are deprived of the opportunity to take their prams on the buses beyond Footscray."

"It ill-behoves the Government transport system to prevent mothers from travelling into town for shopping or to conduct other business in the commercial area of the city."

"Mothers should have this opportunity during off-peak periods."

"The doors of some of the buses need widening to enable mothers to get their prams inside."

"I appeal to the Minister of Transport to have the Melbourne and Metropolitan Tramways Board repeal the regulations, so that mothers may travel into the city with young children in prams during off-peak periods."

"On many occasions, Government members have spoken about the need to develop the commercial centre of Melbourne."

"And now a Government instrumentality is preventing mothers from bringing their children into the city on tramways buses."

THE NATURAL THING

By Bill Ross

In America a TV advertisement for a leading brand of bread claimed that the product could make you grow 12 ways.

Unfortunately for the company, this distorted boast caught the eye of perceptive consumer advocate Ralph Nader.

When he wrote to the company requesting information about this "marvellous product" he was told to mind his own business.

This rebuff sparked our friendly Nader to further action.

Subsequently it was revealed that the bread was of the poorest nutritional quality and that it also contained illegal proportions, elements harmful to the human body.

On his recent tour of Australia, Mr. Nader drew attention to the deterioration in foodstuffs that has occurred in his own country. He warned Australians that U.S. companies may soon create the same unfortunate situation here.

His advice should be heeded — for the recent rash of "fast-food" chains suggests only a first warm water, 10 ozs. water, Sesame seeds.

METHOD: (1) Sift flour and salt.

(2) Dissolve yeast and honey in warm water.

(3) When yeast mixture froths into bubbles (10 mins. approx.) add it, together with the rest of water to flour.

(4) Mix dough in bowl by hand till elastic.

(5) put in warm, well greased tin and sprinkle with sesame seeds — press lightly in.

(6) Cover tin with cloth and place in warm oven or electric frypan (75 deg.) till dough rises near top of tin. (30 minutes).

(7) Bake in oven 400 deg. for 40 minutes cool on cake tray.

Invitation

Altona Council has been invited to send a representative to the Western Suburbs Industry, Employment and Transport Seminar to be held at Hotel International, Harper Street, Airport West, this Sunday between 9.00 a.m. and 4.00 p.m.

Amongst the speakers at the seminar will be ACTU president, Mr. Bob Hawke.

Sunshine carries hopes of Metro. League

First Division team Sunshine City will do battle with George Cross at Olympic Park tonight at 7.30 for the right to meet Juventus in Sunday's Dockerty Cup final.

The replay follows the teams' 2-2 draw last Sunday.

The Dockerty Cup final will kick off at 3.15 p.m. on Sunday. Sunshine City will be the home team, while Juventus will be the away team.

Sunshine's chances in tonight's replay will be affected by the outcome of last night's hearing, the result of which was not known when this paper went to press.

Two Sunshine players faced the tribunal as a result of last Sunday's match — Kaz Pietrowski and Doug Grey, who were charged with having received three cautions and coach Jim McIntyre on a charge of striking Dario Epifano.

If they have been suspended, Alex Aleksic will replace McIntyre and Doug Grey, who played well when he came on as a substitute last week, will replace Pietrowski.

Ziggy Olszewski is again being troubled by an ankle injury and is a doubtful starter but Frank Muscilli, who missed last week's match, has recovered from an injury and will return to the team.

The George Cross line-up will be unchanged. John Gardiner, who scored two goals last week and Kevin Walker, who was a constant menace to Sunshine's goal, will again be the Cross' key men.

Sunshine last week made the mistake of allowing Gardiner room to move. If he is again given a free reign, Sunshine will pay dearly.

George Cross is a much more systematic team than Sunshine.

Its passes are more accurate, it plays more open soccer and its attacks are better constructed.

However, Sunshine's bustling, aggressive style will again make it difficult for the Cross to get its game flowing smoothly and the metro team's greater fitness will make it dangerous in the second half.

With Muscilli's back, Sunshine will have added bite in midfield and attack and will

McRobert in State side

Jim McRobert of Sunshine City has become the first Metropolitan League player to be selected to the Victorian State squad.

The squad will train in preparation for Victoria's match against Pele and his team Santos at Olympic Park on January 19.

This will be the only Australian match of Santos' world tour.

Earlier this year, Santos played against Australia in Sydney and was held to a 2-2 draw due to a brilliant display by the local team and because Ray Richards beat Pele hands down in their individual duel.

The selection of 21-year-old McRobert has created a precedent which may at last give the metropolitan league players the recognition they have long deserved.

Transferred to Sunshine from Juventus early this year, McRobert has proved one of the best linkmen in the First Division and has played his heart out during the Dockerty Cup series.

Footscray J.U.S.T. is also well-represented in the State squad.

Branko Buljevic, the elegant winger who is proving the sensation of Australia's current Asian tour, is naturally one of the three J.U.S.T. representatives.

The others are experienced defender Mike Rosca and that highly talented striker Steve Rujevic.

The most notable omission is George Cross' dual Rothmans Medalist John Gardiner, one of the most brilliant players in Australia.

A wise move on the part of State coach Bill Walsh is including the State under-16 team in his training squad.

These youngsters won the national youth championships

By LAURIE SCHWAB

this year and will benefit greatly from training with the seniors.

One of the 16-year-olds even has a chance of being included in the team to meet Santos.

He is Hellas defender Arthur Xanthopoulos, who plays with Maturity far beyond his years.

Senior players in the squad are goalkeepers Jack Reilly of Hakoah and John Kennedy of Alexander, Bob McGinn, Mike Pye (Wilhelmina), Fausto Tarquinio (Juventus), Ian Marshall, Peter Bourne, Giovanni Battistotto, Jim Armstrong, John Daperis (Hellas), Mike Rosca, Branko Buljevic, Steve Rujevic (J.U.S.T.) and Johnny Wallace (Melbourne).

The juniors are: G. Cole (Wilhelmina); C. Lucchesi, S. Sabidussi (Juventus); A. Bozidakis, M. Tsvoglou, A. Xanthopoulos (Hellas); M. Ristovski, I. Mukavec (J.U.S.T.); K. Velonowski (Makedonia); A. Williams, J. Humble, (Doncaster); P. Lammetts, B. Roberts, I. Hamill (Altona).

Croatia to sue VSF

Croatia will take legal action against the Victorian Soccer Federation over its expulsion on August 3.

The decision follows long talks with the Federation, which gave Croatia no encouragement that its third application for readmission would be granted.

This application was to have been considered by the VSF board of management on Monday night, but Croatia's solicitors withdrew the application, which bore Croatia's proposed new name — Dinamo Batman.

In an angry attack on the Federation, Croatia president Mr. Enver Begovic said at a press conference last Friday:

"It is unfortunate that the game of soccer has gone downhill in Victoria.

"The blame rests squarely with the administration.

"We have players and facilities but the game has fallen down because of individuals and the politics they have introduced into the VSF."

Although Croatia has clearly been victimised by the Federation, the club should have waited until after its third application was considered before rushing into legal action which is unlikely to be effective anyway.

Croatia was expelled from the Federation by the Tribunal on August 3 over a crowd disturbance during the Croatia v. Hakoah match at Olympic Park on July 30.

The Appeals Board, ruling the Tribunal's decision, ruled that Croatia could apply for readmission at the end of the season.

Then the Board of Management of the VSF stepped in arrogantly and made it plain to everyone that it was out to "get" Croatia, by announcing that only clubs eligible on August 10, 1972, could apply to fill the State League vacancy.

Naturally Croatia was not eligible on that date, as it was not a member of the Federation.

The VSF constitution sets the Appeals Board up as the supreme body.

Its decisions should be final. By ruling Croatia out of possible applicants, the Board was tampering with an Appeals Board decision.

As the case continued, Federation officials were alleged by Mr. Begovic to have broken a gentleman's agreement by making statements to the press.

Mr. Begovic said the whole matter was being dealt with by solicitors and during the term of negotiation, both sides had agreed not to make public statements.

There were also reports that Senators Greenwood and McManus had sent letters to the VSF urging that Croatia be re-instated.

Mr. Begovic admitted he had gone to Canberra but denied knowledge of these letters.

State Opposition leader Clyde Holding also got into the act, meeting a Croatia delegation at the request of the club.

The Metropolitan League sought to keep Croatia out of its major divisions by recommending to the VSF that only one team instead of two be relegated down the line.

This would leave the only vacancy in the Fourth Division.

It is also understood that the VSF offered Croatia a berth in the First Division, but under conditions the club found completely unreasonable and impossible to meet.

Juventus soccer club tried having the case opened at a State League Management Committee meeting.

However, the club made the mistake of tabling its questions in advance, enabling Board members to "stack" the meeting and defeat the move.

At the meeting, Board Chairman John Gorton announced angrily that if the clubs didn't like the Board's decisions, it could throw the board out.

He might as well have said: "Don't ask any questions. We're the kings and we can do what we like. You have no rights in this case and we won't like discussing what we do."

Croatia has collected 1800 signatures on a petition asking the VSF to reinstate the club. In addition, it has received more than 1000 sympathy letters from all over Australia.

Players' representative Billy Vojtek said at the press conference last Friday that most of the players would stick by Croatia during its legal fight against the VSF.

However, Jimmy Mackay has indicated that he would like to move to Sydney and four clubs have already contacted him.

South Melbourne-Hellas is also understood to be interested in the international linkman.

Clearly Croatia has been treated unjustly.

A wide variety of punishments was available to the VSF, even a suspension until the end of the season, which is what the Appeals Board visualised.

But the Board of Management with its knife sharpened, was determined to keep Croatia out and thus created a dangerous precedent.

Croatia was expelled over a crowd disturbance.

Any similar disturbance — at any other ground, must therefore also result in expulsion of a club.

The Croatia case has been useful for one reason.

It has shown us why State League soccer has become almost non-existent under the present administration.

COMMONWEALTH SOCIAL SERVICES

NEWS ON PENSIONS AND SUPERANNUATION

A recent amendment to the Social Services Act has introduced new concessions for people receiving superannuation payments.

If you have income from superannuation, you may also be entitled to an age, invalid or widow's pension.

For example, you may have a home, car and personal effects and still receive some pension even if you have superannuation of up to:

	SINGLE	MARRIED
If you are aged 65	$77 a week	$134 a week
If you are aged 70	$93 a week	$161 a week
If you are aged 72	$101 a week	$175 a week
If you are older these amounts will be higher.

If you have income and assets as well as your superannuation, your entitlement will then depend on the level of your income and assets.

There are four things you should know about pensions and superannuation:

- Pension under these new provisions will be paid from the payday after you lodge your claim—so claim immediately.
- First payment under this new arrangement will be made on 22nd February, 1973—and backdated to the lodgment of your claim.
- Leaflets on age, invalid and widows' pensions and on pensions and superannuation, plus claim forms, are available from all Commonwealth Social Services offices and post offices.
- You may calculate your position from our leaflets, but we are happy for you to lodge a claim for a pension and leave it to us to work out your position for you.

FILL OUT THIS COUPON AND SEND IT TODAY TO:

The Director,
Commonwealth Department of Social Services.

SEAGULLS DEFER COACH DECISION

A new coach of the Williamstown Football Club will be announced in mid-November.

The secretary, Mr. John Grieve, said this yesterday.

Williamstown has approached a number of top VFL stars in its search for a coach to replace Max Papley, who has retired.

Among names to enter discussions are Roger Dean (Richmond), Ross Dillon (Melbourne), Ted Potter (Collingwood), Ross Smith (St. Kilda), Barry Gill (Carlton) and Frank Davis (Melbourne).

Star Geelong full-forward Doug Wade was also considered, but has since been signed by North Melbourne.

Mr. Grieve said he anticipated that one of these players will be appointed.

Training will start soon after the appointment is announced.

ALTONA TENNIS FORM IS GOOD
Altona Tennis Club produced some fine form last weekend, winning 10 out of a possible 12 matches.
Even the old chopping blocks, the two top teams, had wins. With new players and a few games these teams could develop into finalists.

That would be a far cry from recent years, when they have been considered relatively easy pickings by the opposition.
A Reserve 1 defeated a strong Kingsville team convincingly. The men, captain Wayne Thomas, Greg Findlay and Stephen Whitecross did not lose a set.
Altona's second team, A Reserve 3, defeated a highly fancied Sunshine Park by eight games. It was the women, Suzanne Keown, Helen Shields and Jenny Morley who starred in this match. They won all their sets against opposition which, up until Saturday, were supposed to be too good for this grade.
All members are requested to attend a working bee on Sunday, starting at 9 a.m. The main purpose for this working bee is to get the six courts in playing condition so as matches will not be finishing at 6.30 p.m. on Saturday.

NORTHERNERS OPEN WELL

Altona North's First Eleven visited Spotswood and batting first gave a good account of themselves with a first innings total of 7 for 199 dec.

Richard Glazner playing against his former team-mates put together a sound 58. Others to do well were S. R. Hatt (27), Peter Costello (17), Ian Walker (14).

Fielding highlights was Bobby Buck's great catch. The 3rd Eleven were visited by Gellibrand and with good bowling performances by Peter Carroll (6/35) and Peter Hateley (4-26) had Gellibrand all out for 75.

Altona Nth. in reply were in trouble early at one stage 7/32 but an even-time partnership of 70 runs between Harold Mason (60 n.o.) and Mourie McDonald (31) helped to make the score at the end of the day more respectable 8/130.

The Juniors were at home to Williamstown Baseballers who battled first and were all out for 26.

A new Hart was discovered — not Royce but Harry — who takes the first trophy for the year with a hat-trick (all bowled) in his figures 5/11. Other wonderful figures were supporting bowler V. Castelli (4/5).

Altona North replied with 4/62 dec. including R. Cassar 23 n.o., and K. Parkhill 19.

Harry struck again in the second innings with 2/6 leaving Williamstown Baseballers 3/6 at stumps.

ROVERS WIN "KNOCKOUT SOCCER"

Albion Rovers defeated Williamstown to win the eight-team "knockout soccer" competition which was held on Kim Reserve last Sunday afternoon.

The competition was held to raise funds for equipment for the new wing of Altona District Hospital.

After the final match had been played, Altona District Hospital president, Mr. Bob Stringer presented a trophy to the Rovers' team captain.

Talking to The Star this week, Mr. Stringer said about 400 people turned out to watch the competition and the hospital hoped to raise $200 from the afternoon.

"I've spoken to the clubs involved and there's a strong possibility that this competition could become an annual event with a perpetual trophy being awarded," said Mr. Stringer.

Mr. Stringer said the competition had been well promoted in soccer circles but had been given some competition by the Dockerty Cup final which was being played in the city on Sunday afternoon.

During the afternoon, entertainment was provided by the Altona City Band and Altona Marching Girls.

Mr. Stringer said the next stringer planned for hospital fund-raising was a dinner to be sponsored by PRA Refinery. The dinner will be held in November.
